

Points are unweighted donor or presumed sample-key mean differences; bars are descriptive Welch 95% intervals. No p-values, pooled estimate, or replication decision is shown. Magnitudes are not comparable across processing scales; GSE165722 uses supplied normalized-count values, not raw CPM.